WILLMANTIC. RETIRES FROM HOTEL BUSINESS. Simeon C. Hooker Sells Hooker House to Clinton, Mass. Man—Retiring Proprietor Known Far and Wide.

The biggest real estate deal effected in the city of Willimantic in recent years was consummated Sunday at midnight, when E. A. Winter, lately of Clinton, Mass., took possession of the Hooker House, having purchased this well known hotel, conducted for more than a score of years by Simeon C. Hooker. Mr. Hooker paid off his help Sunday evening for the last time, and announced his retirement from the hotel. Mr. Winter, a one time man of the Central House in Danielson for a period of seven years, and previous to that June was manager of the Hotel Claremont at Claremont, N. H., for ten years. He has been in the hotel business for 2 years. Mr. Winter stated Sunday evening that he came to Willimantic Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and that after being shown over the hotel by Mr. Hooker, he had about made up his mind to take the place at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It is said that the money consideration is about $42,000.

Stated the retiring manager, is doubtless as well known as any hotel man in the state, and has a reputation here for his successful management. He has enjoyed the distinction of serving many famed banquets that will ever remain the memory of those discussing same.

Mr. Hooker came here from Colchester and conducted the old Brainard House, that stood on the present Boston Store site, very successfully for 20 years ago, and has since conducted a house that has earned fame far and near, so successfully that he is today considered one of the city's wealthiest citizens. The house is a substantial four story brick structure, with a fine basement, and it is an excellent location for a modern, up to date and money making hotel.

Entertained for Visitors. Miss Laura Young entertained a party of young people at her home, on Windham road, Saturday evening, in honor of guests, Miss Myrtle Peterson and Miss Grace Maine of Westley, N. H.

There were about a dozen present, and the evening was pleasantly passed with vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Sunday Papers Were Missing. The New York Sunday Journals did not arrive in Willimantic Sunday, and was the first time that same were not on sale in the city on a Sunday. The papers held up on the way by a heavy storm. The Boston American, Sunday issue, was received in this city at 9:45 Saturday evening.

Spring Flowers Showing. O. A. Sealors of Prospect street has crosses already in bloom in his front dooryard. Clarence E. Larkin cleared the leaves away from some beautiful tulips Sunday that have attained a substantial growth, and are commencing to show their handsome shades in the fine spring weather.

Club Gets Athletic Fixtures. The athletic paraphernalia for the Willimantic Athletic Club has arrived in this city on Philadelphia, and is in the freight house. It is consigned to the club in care of Vice President L. N. Brown, and includes a complete set of parallel bars, punching bag and equipment, traveling rings, etc. The apparatus will be installed today.

Sent Body to North Dighton. The body of Louis E. Prince, who died at St. Joseph's hospital in this city last week, was placed on the 6:20 P. M. train Sunday morning, and was taken to North Dighton, where the funeral will be held under the supervision of the Grand Army of the Republic, with subsequent burial in that town. Edgar L. Prince, a son of the deceased, accompanied the body.

Special Train Passed Through Here. The engine St. Lawrence, attached passenger coach Ontario of the Grand Trunk system, consisted of a special train that passed through this city on Sunday morning over the Central Vermont line, en route to New London or other southern point. It is not known who occupied the car.

Horsemen Organize for Season. The directors of the Horsemen's Park Association met Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the office of Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton and effected an organization for the ensuing year.

These officers were elected: Charles A. Gates, president; Dr. W. L. Higgins, secretary; Frank P. Fenton, secretary and corresponding secretary; Dr. W. L. Higgins, treasurer; Mayor Daniel P. Dunn, superintendent of grounds; Charles B. Pomeroy, Jr., superintendent of cattle; Charles B. Pomeroy, Jr., who is also elected delegate to the state board of agriculture.

Senator Higgins and Representatives D. P. Dunn and Guilford Smith were appointed a committee to appear before the legislature when matters that are pending relative to agricultural matters are brought up.

A general discussion of affairs and things pertaining thereto was indulged in by the directors and officers present, and the outlook for one of the most successful seasons in the association's history is extremely rosy.

Invited to Talk on "Track Athletics." An invitation has been extended to the track athletes of the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs, to be present at a general session of the association, to be held at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at Monday evening, when James L. Brown, a brother of H. Clinton Lathrop, president of the Windham National Athletic Union, will be the speaker.

Mr. Lathrop is recognized as one of the best in the world, and is admirably qualified to discuss the subject. It is a pleasure to have him here, and he is expected to be a great success.

DANIELSON. George Dechnault Fractures Skull by Fall at Cotton Mill. Add-on—William A. Dr. Simeon C. Pilling, Willimantic Young—Borough News and Views.

Frederick W. Bassett of Providence is at home here for a few days. Miss Harriet Lindeman of Worcester visited friends in Danielson over Sunday.

Mr. Joseph Daburlet is recovering after a recent operation at the Day-Kimball hospital.

At St. James' church this (Monday) evening, the retreat will begin for the French speaking men of the congregation.

FRACTURED SKULL. George Dechnault, a Carpenter, Falls Twelve Feet.

George Dechnault, 26, of Centreville, R. I., a carpenter employed on the addition to the mill of the Danielson Cotton Company, fell a distance of about twelve feet Saturday morning and sustained a fractured skull.

He was working on the second floor, and fell from a scaffold. The work was being done on the addition to the mill of the Danielson Cotton Company. The work was being done on the addition to the mill of the Danielson Cotton Company.

Funerals. Dr. Simeon O. Pilling. Funeral services for Dr. Simeon O. Pilling was held Saturday at noon at the home of his brother, Luther Pilling, Rev. R. S. Cushman of the Methodist church and Rev. W. P. Davis of St. Alban's Episcopal church were the officiating clergymen.

Prominent G. A. R. Man Dead. Earl S. Cranston, aged 65, died at his home, 251 Church street, about 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Cranston had been in failing health for some little time and was known to be very low for a number of days.

About the Borough. Miss Edith Danielson of Providence was a visitor in Danielson Saturday. Charles Domingue of Woonsocket was the guest of Danielson relatives over Sunday.
